PRIZE CONTEST

For World's Fair Trip Promises Surprises Next Week.

Each week adds new features of interest to the World's Fair contest arranged by the Kentucky Irish American. The hustling of the friends of a number of candidates during the present week is bearing fruit and when the names and standing of the contestants is published next week not a few surprises will be in store. The single gentlemen seem to have taken a better grip on the proposition this week and several of the candidates have moved toward the van rapidly.
The unmarried ladies seem to be working very quietly, but no doubt will show a wonderful burst of speed when the proper time comes.

Remember the prizes: A trip to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, or St.
Louis World's Fair, next year, transportation and one week at the Lindell hotel free, to the most popular single lady, the most popular married couple and to the most popular single gentleman. The conditions are simple and easy. For every dollar paid in as a subscription to the Kentucky Irish American you are entitled to fifty votes, whether it be from a new subscriber or whether it be from an old subscriber. Besides a ballot appears each week, thus giving the subscriber one additional ballot each week until the contest is closed. The race is open to all, regardless of creed or nationality.

STATE COUNCIL

Organized by Knights of Columbus and Officers Are Chosen.

The State Council of the Knights of Columbus was organized in this city during the present week. Representatives were present from the councils in Lexington, Covington and Louisville.
The officers of the State Council are:
Charles J. O'Connor, Louisville, State Deputy; George A. Burley, Louisville, State Secretary; C. J. Resgan, Lexington, State Treasurer; F. M. Tracy, Corvington, State Advocate; J. C. Rogers, Lexington, State Warden; F. M. Tracy and J. P. Lyons, representatives to the next national convention, to be held at Louisville in June, 1904.

The Knights of Columbus are making arrangements to organize a council in Owensboro at an early date. A large class will be initiated by Louisville Council late in October or early in November.

NEW VICE PRESIDENT

Joseph Dougherty Chosen to Succeed Tom Dolan, Resigned.

State President Keenan presided over the meeting of Division 1, Ancient Order of Hibernians, Tuesday night in the absence of President Mike Tynan. Peter Cosgrove and William Nally were instituted, receiving all four degrees, while the third and fourth degrees were conferred upon Patrick Meehan. The resignation of Vice President Tom Dolan was accepted with regret, and Joseph Dougherty was elected to succeed him. County President Sullivan installed the new Vice President. Mr. Dolan resigned because he injured one of his feet recently and is not able to attend the meetings.

Two applications for membership were received and brief addresses were made by State President Keenan, County President Sullivan and others.

WATCH CHARM FOUND.

A handsome watch charm, evidently the property of a Catholic, was picked up on the street on Labor day. It is in the shape of a Maltese cross, and engraved on one side is a picture of the Blessed Virgin with a number of stars. On the other side is engraved the letter "M," surmounted by a carved cross. The owner of the article can ascertain where his property is by applying at the office of the Kentucky Irish American.

MAKING GOOD STREET.

Green street, between Fourth and Fifth, is being reconstructed with asphalt.
This block has a great deal of travel every day and the old boulder pavement has long been an eyesore to the public who had business in the center of the city.
Few if any streets in the business section needed reconstruction so much, and the asphalt pavement will not only add to the appearance of the street but will facilitate traffic.

ATTEND LAWN FETE.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Typographical Union, No. 10, will give a lawn fete at 204 East Broadway on the evening of Wednesday, September 30.
Good music will be in attendance and refreshments will be served. Admission will be only fifteen cents. The ladies of the auxiliary are engaged in a noble work and their lawn fete should be well attended.

AN OFF WEEK.

Owing to the fact that the Grand Council of the Young Men's Institute met in Louisville this week, none of the local councils transacted any business. Instead the members devoted themselves to the entertainment of the visiting members and delegates.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Division 49, of Boston, has brought a fair to a successful conclusion.

Ten priests rode in carriages in the recent parade of the Utica Hibernians.

Division 20 of Providence, R. I., instituted a class of twenty at a recent meeting.

Division 6, of Syracuse, gave a warm welcome to the new pastor, the Rev.
Father O'Shea.

Company C, Hibernian Rifles, of Providence, R. I., are preparing to hold their annual fair in October.

Gaelic games furnished the principal amusement at the recent picnic given by the five divisions of Lowell, Mass.

More than 8,000 persons attended the Irish field day given under the auspices of the Hibernians of Charlestown, Mass.

Members of the degree teams are burnishing their memories in preparation of lots of work during the fall and winter.

Members of the order in St. Paul, Minn., celebrated Emmet's centenary with a street parade in the afternoon and a musical and literary entertainment at night.

The proceeds of the Hibernian day celebration in Baltimore amounted to a considerable sum, and will be devoted to the erection of a suitable hall for the order.

Every division of the order in the United States either had its own celebration of Robert Emmet's centenary or assisted other societies in celebrating the occasion.

The Hibernians of Detroit are preparing to give an Irish fair for the week beginning November 2. The event promises to be of a very interesting character.

The Rev. Father Donahue, National President Dolan and County President Dorsey made addresses at the recent picnic given under the auspices of Division 7, of Syracuse.

Division 20, of Bayonne, N. J., is known as the banner division of Hudson county.
In addition to 300 members it boasts a pipe and drum corps, and Company A, Hibernian Rifles, is made up of its members.

Reports in the hands of the National Secretary show an increase of 100 divisions since July 1, 1902, and an estimated increase in membership of 12,000. The National Treasurer's report shows a balance of more than $5,500 on hand.

Members of the order in South Bend, Ind., have organized a corporation to be known as the Hibernian Home Association. It is capitalized at $10,000. The object is to build a home for the order.
Sixty shares of the stock have been sold.

Divisions 1 and 2, of Portland, Ore., presented Bishop-elect O'Reilly with one of the most beautiful crosses ever seen west of the Rocky mountains.
While Bishop O'Reilly was being escorted through the hall the choir of St.
Mary's church sang the Star Spangled Banner.

The Right Rev. Thomas J. Conaty, the new Bishop of Los Angeles, Cal., attended a meeting of Division 20 of that city recently and was given a rousing welcome. President O'Brien and Chaplain Father Murphy both formally welcomed the distinguished prelate, who in turn delighted the members with his address in response. In conclusion Bishop Conaty expressed the wish that Hibernians would be ever true to this land of freedom and worthy of its citizenship.

A visitor from the East who recently attended a meeting of Division 9 in Chicago heralds it as a model division. He points out that with its membership of 183 it has a circulating library consisting solely of Irish national literature and a club room where the brothers may daily assemble and discuss current events. The visitor says he was much impressed with the following exordium of the President of Division 9: "We shall pass through this world but once. Anything therefore that we can do or any kindness we can show to others let us do it now. Let us not defer it nor neglect it, for we shall not pass this way again."

CARDINAL GIBBONS HOME.

His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons arrived in New York Tuesday en route home from Rome, where he attended the obsequies of Pope Leo XIII., and took part in the election of His Holiness Pope Pius X. Cardinal Gibbons was warmly welcomed in New York and was given quite an ovation when he reached Baltimore.

Among the few Paris model gowns and costs shown at this early date combinations of a shaggy silky albino and plain brocade are noticeable.

dress, congratulating the assemblage on the election of such a solid and excellent set of officers, whom he asked all to aid, and thus put Kentucky in the first rank.
S. B. Callahan, of Knoxville, Tenn., responded to the toast, "Our New Councils." He made a very favorable impression. John M. Cooney, editor of the Nelson County Record, spoke on "Fraternal Societies" and John Barry, editor of the New Haven Record and a veteran V. M. I., made one of his humorous addresses on his favorite subject, "The Press." The festivities concluded with the chorus, "Faith and Fraternity."

FITTINGLY.

were given a banquet in the hall of the boys' school. Many toasts were responded to and all spoke feelingly of the priest in whose honor the banquet was given.

On Tuesday evening the members of St. Martin's choir, who had generously given so much of their time to make the jubilee a success, were given a banquet. The evening was pleasantly spent.
There was music and a few speeches after the bounteous repast had been dispatched. The choir was an unusually strong one, forty-five members, and all members of the congregation.

During the three days' jubilee, Monsignor Zabler was the recipient of many presents, among them a suitable purse from the men of the congregation, and another from the trustees. The young men of the parish paid for the decorations, while the ladies of the congregation furnished the viands for the banquets.
Each of the several branches of the congregation had work allotted to it, and each performed its part admirably. It is to be hoped that Father Zabler will be spared to celebrate his golden jubilee among the people who honor him as their pastor.

NEW SOUTH.

Engineer Tim Scanlon Tells of Its Prospects and Advantages.

Tim Scanlon, a popular engineer in the employ of the Illinois Central railroad at Vicksburg, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Louisville for several weeks past, will return home with his wife today. He lived in Louisville for many years and both he and his wife, who was formerly Miss Mary Monahan, are both well known in this city.
Mr. Scanlon believes that there is a great future about to open for the South.
He says there is every indication that the Illinois Central will soon be the great railroad system in the world. Even now cars laden with cotton and cotton seed oil are being shipped south to New Orleans with their freight billed direct to Ireland. He also says manufactures are springing up on all sides in the South, which with the proposed Isthmian canal will make New Orleans as great, if not greater, than New York or Chicago.

BIG INCREASE

Made by the Ancient Order of Hibernians in the City and State.

A fine meeting of Division 2, Ancient Order of Hibernians, was held Friday night of last week. President Cof Ford occupied the chair. County President Patrick T. Sullivan reported the order in Jefferson county in splendid condition, Division 2 having increased 80 per cent.
He urged all to work hard to further increase the membership before January 1.
Mr. Sullivan said that the order was increasing everywhere, and he believed that Kentucky would show the greatest increase of any State in the Union, when the next national convention was held.

State Secretary Meehan followed with a brief address, telling how the order was increasing not only in Jefferson county, but all over the State. It was announced that the next meeting of the County Board would be held on Wednesday, September 30.

HINTS ON STYLE.

Blue and green combinations come up smiling among the handsomest of the autumn goods.

The plaited and belted coat, with its plaits set upon a plain long shoulder yoke, which is cut in one with the front piece, is a good outing model for tweed or serge.

Chiffon or mousseline enters into the composition of many of the new cloth frocks and is sometimes set in as puffed band trimming, as in the case of another frocks.

One material, silky and shaggy, has an almost invisible check of blending green and light browns, and through it are little shadowy splashes of dull orange.
Another in dark blue and white has here and there an indeterminate dash of powder blue.

Velvets in all forms appear to be making a strong bid for favor, and not in many seasons have there been such variety and beauty in fancy velvets.
Panne is the most prominent, but astonishing things are done with the once plain panne.

Yokes of all shapes, but invariably coming down well over the top of the sleeve, are popular, and when a yoke is not applied the bodice shoulder itself is cut in one with the sleeve top or cap, and the upper half of the armhole is entirely lost to view.
